

National Law Enforcement Training Conference & Expo

NEW...just added!

Sheriff Rich Stanek of Hennepin County (Minneapolis, MN) will speak at the NLETC on how his office responded to the disaster of the I-35 bridge collapse during rush-hour traffic in August 2007, putting his and his department's personnel and training to the test.

NEW...just added!

Michael O'Shea of the U.S. Dept. of Justice will speak at the NLETC on DOJ's "Active Shooter" and "Incident Commander" training software and other technologies available to law enforcement agencies throughout the U.S.

NEW...just added!

Rick Ubinas, Director of the National Law Enforcement CBRNE Training Centers will speak at the NLETC on the Command & Control of CBRNE (Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear and Explosives) Weapons of Mass Destruction and Security & Readiness Planning and Threat Assessment for Special Events (A Special Review of Planning for Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, FL)

As a law enforcement professional, keeping "on top" of the latest technologies and knowing how to best respond to the next critical incident is important to you. That is why I am asking you to take a few minutes of your time today to print out the linked brochure for our National Law Enforcement Training Conference & Expo to be held in Tampa, Florida, from August 10-12, 2009.

If you contact us now....you can take advantage of our "send 2 for the price of 1" attendee registration discount offer! This will allow you to send multiple attendees at a greatly reduced price!

Our special focus for this conference is "Managing Critical Incidents." This training was specifically created for law enforcement and public safety command staff and managers from federal, state and local government agencies and offices, who deal with critical incidents in their professions.

We are fortunate to have Lt. Gen. Russel Honoré, (U.S. Army, Ret.), with us as our Keynote

What topics will we cover?

- Mass Shootings (a comprehensive review of the VA.Tech campus shooting; a thorough discussion of cause & effect, prevention, recovery, investigative tools, and psychological aftermath)
- Natural and Man-Made Disasters (hurricanes, floods, ice-storms, landslides,

Speaker.

General Honoré commanded the Joint Task Force for the Hurricane Katrina recovery and rescue effort in New Orleans. He will speak on "See first, understand first: Leadership and Preparedness in the 21st Century."

Education is the focus of our conference, but we've also designed our expo with you in mind! You will be able to visit with such outstanding companies as Harley-Davidson, Blackhawk Products Group, Glock, Force One Armor, Hackney USA, etc. You'll see new products, demonstrations and services that directly relate to the work you do and will help you manage the next critical incident!

- tornadoes, gas-pipeline and chemical spills, road, bridge and building collapses, etc.)
- Counter-terrorism and Intelligence Gathering
- Security at Special Events (a review of preparations for Super Bowl XLIII)
- Active Shooter and Incident Commander Software available from Dept. of Justice
- Additional course topics will be added soon!

Visit our webpage at <http://www.statetroopers.org/Conference.htm> to keep updated about additional conference topics to be added. Low hotel rates are also available at the Tampa Airport Marriott if you make reservations through our website!

Attend this conference and learn from the experts. Learn from the very people who have dealt with mass shootings, terrorist threats, natural disasters and other critical incidents. Prepare yourself, prepare your city, your town, your department... and be READY for the NEXT CRITICAL INCIDENT!

Please call Sharon Blanchard toll-free at 866-280-7294 with any questions you have about the conference, or email her at nletc@statetroopers.org

SPECIAL GROUP DISCOUNTS ARE AVAILABLE FOR MULTIPLE ATTENDEES FROM SAME AGENCY OR DEPARTMENT! Don't miss out on this special discount offer that will enable you to send as many of your command staff that NEED this essential training!

We look forward to seeing you in Tampa this August!

Sincerely,
Jeffrey N. Lane, First Sergeant
